Plot Aishwarya (Kajal Aggarwal) is a strict girl who is very passionate about everything. She is determined to get a good education and intends to marry a wealthy man. She goes to school, studying hard. Aishwarya becomes a final year student. The school's principal tells her that she will be eligible for the interview round if she does well. Aishwarya is very dedicated to the job and scores good marks. Her mother worries about the choice of her husband. Aishwarya's childhood friend Vasanth (Nassar) comes to her with a proposal. He suggests that she marry him and go to Canada for his work. Aishwarya refuses his proposal. Vasanth is stubborn and decides to take her on her mother's insistence. She does not want to get married, but Vasanth continues his persuasion. The school principal gives Aishwarya an interview. He encourages her to be nice with Vasanth and win him over by her behavior. Aishwarya listens to him and changes her attitude to please him. However, Vasanth is upset with Aishwarya's attitude and decides to leave her, after the completion of her higher studies. Meanwhile, on a rainy night, Aishwarya secretly meets Vasanth. He calls out to her to meet him the next day. She meets him, but is late. The principal scolds her for being late. Aishwarya is late to Vasanth's house, but the latter is unaware of her arrival. She enters the house, and says she was coming to meet Vasanth. On the night of her birthday, she comes to his house. When Vasanth asks her to come
