Yarbur Keyboard Layout Download [Win/Mac]

There are many reasons why you would want to use the Russian keyboard layout. One is that it's simple to use and comes with hundreds of shortcuts, so you can type efficiently. Another is that you can type both Ukrainian and Belorussian letters with the same keyboard, since Yarbur contains the Ukrainian and Belorussian versions of the keyboard layout. This makes it possible to type a variety of Ukrainian and Belorussian-language text quickly and efficiently. It would also make it possible to type text in languages other than Ukrainian and Belorussian, since we can type in Russian, English, and Ukrainian with the same keyboard. As you can see, if you have a Russian keyboard, you can use it to type Ukrainian, Belorussian, and even Russian text. It's not yet possible to type in Japanese, Korean, Hindi, or other languages with the same keyboard. However, one day, that might be possible using the Russian keyboard layout.
