This is HyperX's proprietary version of Non-Gaming Experience mode. It enables users to make changes to the settings and appearance of the HyperX brand of products. The software consists of three main tabs; Basic, Game, and Game Tuning. In Basic, users can customize the lighting and RGB of the products they own. This allows them to find their preferred settings, as well as create and save their preferred color settings for later use. The Game tab contains six tabs, all related to the game features of the products they own. These allow users to customize their gamepad, mouse, keyboard, headset, and microphone. Each of these pages has a large amount of controls to enable tweaking for different users. The Game Tuning tab allows users to customize sound effects for their products. Users can take the time to adjust how high and low the sound of their products are, as well as their volume. They can also change their brightness and effects. HyperX NGENUITY Product Compatibility: Only HyperX-branded products are supported by this product. If you own any other product, please do not purchase this software.
